2. CONTRACT EXECUTION						Client initial
If all the clauses indicated on this contract have been met and acknowledged by the mentioned client who still refuses to complete the sale of the vehicle within the delay allowed, the vehicle merchant can force the obligations to the client, or cancel the sale. In the latter, the client must pay a penalty fee, with interest accrued and taxes included of one of the lesser amounts: (1) four-hundred dollars (400$), or (2) two percent (2%) of the sales price of the vehicle indicated. If the vehicle merchant is unable to complete the sale to client for the following unavoidable problems including transport issues, manufacturer issues, fire, labor dispute or any other uncontrollable event, the sale will be cancelled by the vehicle merchant with an obligation to reimburse either the deposit, or the down payment to the client. Trade-in vehicle: If a trade-in vehicle has been given in place of a down payment, or deposit and that vehicle has already been sold by the vehicle merchant to another owner, it will not be required that the vehicle merchant provide the sales price, or any other costs incurred regarding the sale of the vehicle to the previous owner. The agreed trade-in amount deducted from the new sale will constitute as a full and final release of any claims that the owner of the traded-in vehicle may have against the vehicle merchant or the new owner.
3 : EXCHANGE VEHICLE > Indicate N/A if no vehicle is given in exchange: []
3.1 : The client agrees to give, in place of a down payment, the trade-in vehicle indicated :
